Dear Colleague

Upon review of your expertise in sustainable technologies in energy and environmental or hydrogen technologies, and eco-material and environmental catalysis, and energy conservation and efficient use of resources, and mathematical modeling of engineering systems or energy and environmental policy and education by the 7th APCSEET scientific committee, it gives me pleasure to invite you to orally present a paper at the coming 7th Asia Pacific Congress on Sustainable Energy and Environmental Technologies, APCSEET, October 15–17, 2009 in Qingdao, China. This APCSEET conference will feature over 200 oral paper presentations. The conference web is,

/apcseet2009.upc.edu.cn/

These 7th APCSEET detailed abstracts will be reviewed and potentially appear as short papers in international journals, which are under negotiation. Further, “all” full length version of these short papers, with paper title change, will be reviewed and published in international journal. Due to budgetary constraints, we are unable to offer financial assistance.
